

MOTION PICTURE NOTES

Margaret Fischer, Mutual star, is to write an article on "How Men Propose." She says she's had about 600 offers of marriage.

Director Harry Harvey of Balboa thinks the girl with the wide face is best for motion pictures. Thus would Harvey narrow down the list of candidates.

Little Ethelwyn Oakland, the Thambour child star, has just posed for a portrait by Emil Fuchs and whaddy think? It shows her looking dreamily into space.

Bell is making a feature film called "The Light of the Western Stars" which fairly bristles with red-blooded action. Bessie Epton and Tom Mix are in it.

The World Film Corporation has been going some lately under the direction of William A. Brady. It now has thirty-three photoplays ready for release.

Roscoe Arbuckle, known to all film fans as "Fatty," returned to Los Angeles from New York a few days ago and the moment he stepped off the train the town seemed to tip a little.

Women's clubs appear to be taking a great deal of interest in the Thambour-Pathe Gold Rooster film, "The Shine Girl." Frequently an organization of this kind will ask for a private showing of the picture.

Walt Williams of Rye, N. Y., has written a scenario which he calls "Over the Waves." The time he spent on it must have been, as it were, Walt's time.

Your Eyesight vs. $2.50

Sounds like an absurd comparison, doesn't it? Yet some people let this small sum prevent the enjoyment of good eyesight. You cannot tell how much your eyesight and general health will improve until you have had your eyes examined by our Oculists, Registered Eye Physicians.
